Testimonials

"I wanted to thank you for your patience in this process with Philip Morris. I have to add that you are one of the most organized PM's I have had the pleasure of dealing with."

Barbara Venturi
AMBAR Realty Group, LLC

"...dealing with Tom Kirbo and Todd Cohen made this project painless. From scouting for space, to negotiating the lease, to getting bids and managing our construction, they were fabulous. They kept on everyone to get everything done and we ended up with a project that came in on time and on budget."

Vicki M. Tittle
Administrator
Northside Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine

"I cannot find words to thank you enough for the job you did for me during this project. You were always right there when I needed you - never minding the endless questions and requests I had. I honestly could not have gotten through this project without you."

Jennifer Bragg, D.M.D.

"The punch list is complete and things look great... Thanks so much for all you have helped us with and done on our behalf."

Christy Bowman

"Mr. Mark Wilde efforts were instrumental in facilitated smooth communication and he brought a ton of construction/Project management experience to the table. He also conducted himself very professionally manner in representing Cousins in all of our project/site meetings and business communications. In my estimation Mark's involvement added a lot of value to our overall customer satisfaction in this transaction."

Arnaud Viviers
President/CEO
Orcatec LLC

"For me, the project was simple and I cannot imagine trying to manage such a project myself while working full time. To finding and negotiating the land deal to finding a qualified architect, contractor and interior designer to physically overseeing the construction of the project, you did an outstanding job. Should I decide to undertake another project in the future, I would not hesitate to contact you for the project management again."

Mark Moore, D.M.D., P.C

"The entire project was pleasantly uneventful. The best experience I've had during my years of practicing medicine."

Randall H. Rudderman, M.D., Inc.

"Mr. Cohen really impressed me with his active, hands on management of my office build-out. Because of his thoroughness in the pre-construction phase, I was able to concentrate on running my practice with no disruptions from the new office build-out. His exceptional ability during construction allowed the new office to be delivered on time as designed and on budget "

Curtis C. Williams III, D.M.D.
