CK Construction Management has changed its moniker to CKW & Associates and added veteran construction and development executive Mark H. Wilde to the team.

"Fortunately even in today's economy, our business has continued to grow as more and more companies have outsourced project management services for design and construction to us," said Todd Cohen, principal of CKW & Associates. "We recognized a need in the market for quality management services and are delighted to add Mark to our staff."

Wilde has 15 years of development experience and was founder of MH Wilde Group, a construction and development firm representing landlords, tenants and developers. Previously he served as president of Griffin Construction Services and has also worked with Schoppman-Freese Co., Carter & Associates and Brannen Development Company.
