Mark Wilde recently joined Todd Cohen to form CKW & Associates. Most recently, Mark Wilde founded MH Wilde Group, Inc in 2008 as a vehicle for his passion to bring vision to reality for construction and development teams. Mark's diverse background, knowledge, and team based philosophy provides unique leadership for a broad range of project types. With 15 years of experience representing General Contractors, Landlords, Tenants, and Developers he has created a formula for building successful teams. Whether it was acting as a Project Manager, Construction Manager, or President of a $20M organization, Mark fostered environments based on integrity and professionalism.

Prior to MH Wilde Group, Mark served as President of Griffin Construction Services where he was responsible for the overall direction and leadership of the 20 employee construction division of The Griffin Company. In his 5 year tenure, Griffin made The Atlanta Business Chronicles Top 20 Interior Contractor each year and executed $100M in projects. Under his leadership Griffin significantly diversified their portfolio, hired and trained a highly talented staff, built a corporate culture based on integrity, and implemented a completely new operations infrastructure for efficiencies.

Prior to Griffin, Mark worked for Schoppman-Freese Company as a Managing Director and before that as a Construction Manager for Carter & Associates. In each of these positions Mark was able to sharpen his skill set and gain new perspectives by working for Developers, Landlords and Tenants. It was in this capacity and with this great wealth of diversification that Mark was able to begin to shape his vision for MH Wilde Group. He got his start in Real Estate as a Project Manager for Brannen Development Company.

Mark has a BA in Management from Gettysburg College with concentrations in: Finance/Accounting, Entrepreneurship and Human Resources. He is a qualifying agent for the State of Georgia's General Contractors License. Mark is also a member of the CEO Roundtable in the Cobb County Chamber of Commerce, . In 2003, Mark received a Certificate for Constructing Advanced Technology from Arizona State University. He also has spoken at Georgia Institute of Technology on "The Team Approach to Project Management."
